Bragdy Twt Lol	Cwrw'r Afr Serchog - Horny Goat Al	Golden	4.2	Horny Goat Ale is a golden malty ale brewed with United States and New Zealand hops. We've used a hint of Horny Goat Weed in this brew, a herb used for thousands of years in traditional Chinese medicine. In East Asian legend, shepherds observed higher numbers of offspring when goats grazed on the Horny Goat Weed. We've used Southern Cross at the end of the brewing boil which provides the pine and citrus notes for this balanced 4.2% ale.

Phipps	IPA	Amber	4.3	Phipps IPA, brewed to an authentic 1930s recipe, is a golden beer relying solely on the pale ale malt in its grist for its colour. The classic blend of Goldings and Fuggles hops gives the characteristic English ale flavours to this full-bodied beer. The balance of bitterness and sweetness, allied to a smooth hoppy after-taste, creates a most drinkable pint and our flagship brew. THE iconic Northamptonshire pint, brewed to suit the tastes and water of the county, it was originally a stronger India Pale Ale strength at 4.8%. Its reduction to 4.3% during the First World War opened up the beer to a wider audience. The ale was taken to the hearts of the county's shoe workers as its hoppy flavour and bitterness cut through the tannin rich leather aroma that cordwainers spent their working days inhaling.

Tiny Rebel	Cwtch	Brown	4	Probably the best word ever. Cwtch (rhymes with butch) can mean either cuddle or cubbyhole. Grab a glass, relax and cwtch up with this untraditional Welsh red ale - a perfect blend of six caramelly malts and three citrusy American hops. It isn't your average bitter - the hops do more to this deep amber coloured beer than just provide bite. Any old hop can do that! We've selected some of the most aromatic and tangy hops from the other side of the pond to give this red a fresh hit that complements the caramel flavours of the malts that gives this beer its colour. Drinkability and balance makes this beer. We love a good Cwtch, and we're not the only ones...
Paradigm	Low Hanging Fruit	Pale	3.7
Tiny Rebel	Dirty Stop Out	Black	5	Dark and smoky, just like a good night out. 9 malts give the beer a rich, complex body, with smoked oats giving it something completely different. To balance all the malty goodness it's packed to the gunnels with Slovenian hops to provide an equalising bitterness that adds yet another layer of depth. One to drink until the wee hours, before making your way home to a telling-off from mum.
Phipps	Bison Brown	Brown	4.6	In the 1950s and '60s, Bison Brown was one of Phipps' most popular pints with its bottle version a best seller. In today's market where beers are getting hoppier and lighter as brewers vie with each other to get more hops in your glass than ever before, many have forgotten the pleasure to be had from a smooth malty brew with a balance of flavours. Phipps always swims against the tide of fashion, looking to our proud heritage to bring you this brown ale with the creamy texture of a stout but the hoppy character of a strong ale; the best of both worlds in one bottle.
Tring	Pale 4	gold	4.6
Phipps	Rat Lips Stout	Dark Mild	4.3	A creamy, full bodied malty brew, satisfyingly rich with distinct caramel and coffee notes. A combination of crystal and roasted malts give the stout its deep, dark flavour topped of with a creamy thick tan head. Unlike some stouts, it isn't overly bitter due to careful use of traditional English hop varieties in the brewhouse.
